OUR STORY

ONYX BASKETBALL ACADEMY celebrates its 25th anniversary (2001 – 2026). We have trained more than 2,000 players. Today, we are the largest basketball training organisation in Central Africa, with 300 young people aged 4 to 25 every season.

OUR VALUES

HARD WORK · DISCIPLINE · EDUCATION · SOLIDARITY

WHO?

Founded by Louis TSOUNGUI, a former international basketball player, national team coach and PE teacher, supported by a skilled and passionate team of 15 staff.

WHAT WE DEVELOP

Sporting talent, backed by educational and academic support. Basketball is also a way to instil human values in young people.

OUR OBJECTIVES

To train tomorrow's elite athletes and responsible citizens, build a professional training centre unique in Central Africa, and develop international partnerships.

HUMAN VALUES

25% of our members join free of charge (families in great hardship). An annual humanitarian tournament funds medicine donations in northern Cameroon. Hands-on environmental action.

OUR RESULTS

HOW WE OPERATE

Social and solidarity economy model • Quality assessment tools • Academic monitoring • Regional and national leagues, girls and boys • 8 coaches on staff

OUR ACHIEVEMENTS

Luc Mbah a Moute: trained at ONYX, he built an NBA career, including with the Los Angeles Clippers. Yves Missi played at Baylor University before joining the New Orleans Pelicans in the NBA. Beyond them, hundreds of young people have embraced ONYX values and gone on to succeed in their careers, family and community life.

2018 – 19

All our teams, ages 4 to 18, reached their league finals: a first for any academy.

ELITE ONE

Both our senior teams, women and men, compete in the national top division.

2023

ONYX Women win the Cameroon Cup and the LBC championship.
